READING FOR CuLtures across Borders

The Virtual Training Seminars for “Lit.Mentors”

➔ The Virtual Training Seminars for “Lit.Mentors” is a core output for READ-IN-CLUB project and is dedicated to fulfill the need of an innovative and digital educational approach

➔ The IO2 offers a series of digital seminars with training material in order to develop training skills and intercultural competences and educate the future “Lit.Mentors” on mentoring their communities in order to:

- ➔ transform “collective reading” experiences;
- ➔ lifelong learning environments which foster intercultural dialogue processes;
- ➔ promote the values of literature for equity, diversity, inclusion, tolerance, open-mindedness, mutual understanding and creative development;
- ➔ stimulating interest for the universal values of EU for the understanding of the “other” through literature;
- ➔ highlighting the necessity of intercultural competences and digital skills in the modern cultural and creative industry of EU.
